BUCCYRUS, Nov. 25—Various organizations of the city have been asked by city council and city officials to assist in solving the problem of the transfer of New York Central repair shops to Collingwood, which is being held up by the terms of a deed designed 50 years ago to force the shops to remain here.

Congressman To Leave Sunday for Washington

Mouser Declares He Will Support Wagner Unemployment Bill; Also Favors Development of Muscle Shoals To Provide Cheaper Fertilizer for Farmers.

Preparing to return Sunday to Washington for the short session of congress opening Monday, Congressman Grant E. Mouser Jr. yesterday declared his intention to cast favorable votes on what he believes are the three most important questions slated for the short session.

Congressman Mouser now looks with favor on the Capper Kelly bill, the Wagner unemployment bill, and the proposed development of Muscle Shoals, he said in an interview in his office yesterday afternoon.

May Abolish Session

All of these are slated to come up in the short session unless the Norris bill to abolish the "lame duck" session, as the short session is popularly known, is introduced and passed. In that event, all pending legislation would be carried over to the first session of 1937.

Congressman Mouser's present inclination is to favor the abolishment of the "lame duck" session, he said.

"I believe that the incoming and newly-elected officials should vote on pending legislation instead of the "lame duck" members who were defeated at the last election and who retire March 1," Mouser said.

Favors Wagner Bill

The Wagner unemployment bill is seen by Mouser as a potential measure of relief to existing employment conditions. "I believe that the Wagner unemployment bill will be passed and hope that public works may be speeded up by congress in order that men may be put to work in the winter of early spring," Mouser declared.

"In a machine age which has reduced the number of jobs available to American workmen," Mouser continued, "there is the very grave question of the proposed shortening of the number of working hours in order that more men may be employed. Men who are family heads and willing to work must be given employment or state and national aid, or both."

The proposed development of Muscle Shoals will attract another favorable vote from Mouser if the question comes before the short session.

"I'm in favor of developing Muscle Shoals, for I believe it will afford an opportunity for farmers to obtain cheap fertilizer, badly needed, as well as developing the great possibilities of furnishing power, Mouser said. He also pointed out that the development of Muscle Shoals would give some relief to existing employment conditions.

Has Two Bills Up
"I hope that this legislation may be passed and signed by the President before we adjourn from regular session on March 4," Mouser said.

Action on two bills recently introduced by Mouser and now in the hands of committees is anticipated at the next session. These bills, if passed, would provide compensation of $100 a month for Spanish-American war veterans who are totally helpless and in need of attention, and would make Armistice day a national holiday.

Mrs. Mouser will accompany Congressman Mouser to Washington, and will remain with him until Dec. 29, when the short session will adjourn for the holidays. The congressman's children, Gwendolen, 11, Grant III, 7, and Harold, 5, will remain in Marion to attend school here.

THEATER NEWS AND REVIEWS

FAMOUS TREK WEST IS THEME OF NEXT PICTURE AT PALACE

"The Big Trail," Directed by Raoul Walsh, To Open Sunday.

By HALLIE HOUK

CONCEDED to be the biggest picture of the early west since the advent of talking pictures, "The Big Trail" comes to the Palace Sunday and Monday. Raoul Walsh of "What Price Glory" fame, directed the picture.

John Wayne, Marguerite Churchill and El Brendel head the cast, but it seems from watching theater gossip, that Tully Marshall gives the most convincing performance of any member of the cast. Brendel will afford the laughs.

Seven hundred and twenty-five Indians, from five different tribes participate in an Indian attack filmed for the picture.

In April, 1829, the first wagon train left St. Louis for the Oregon country. Early this year Congress authorized national commemoration of this speech and President Hoover issued a proclamation calling upon the American people to observe this important event.

"ONLY SAYS WORK" COMING TO MARION

Yeh, we believe it—the title of the picture coming to the Marion Sunday, Monday and Tuesday — "Only Says Work."

Leon Errol of the collapsible knees, Richard Arlen, Mary Brian and Stuart Erwin head the cast of the picture, made from a play by Owen Davis, author of many hits, among them "The Nervous Wreck."

The play is concerned with a gang of comical crooks who pose as detectives at a swanky health farm.

Leon Errol, the featured comedian has been the comic star of Ziegfeld's "Follies" and "Sally" and "Louis the 14th." His first screen appearance was in the silent days of "Sally." He brought his trick knee genius to the talking screen for the first time in "Paramount on Parade."

LEW AYRES MAKES ANOTHER PICTURE
Lew Ayres must be making one picture after another since his rise to the heights in "All Quiet on the Western Front." He went to the Ohio Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in "The Doorway to Hell," a gangland picture.

'TOM SAWYER' CALLS BACK MEMORIES OF DAYS OF LONG AGO

Jackie Coogan and Mitzzi Green in Mark Twain Story at Palace.

"Don't miss 'Tom Sawyer,' was the advice to friends today from those who saw the show at the Palace last night. And the show is worthy of the recommendation. Jackie Coogan and Mitzzi Green are Tom Sawyer and Becky Thatcher respectively, though in itself to warrant the picture being good.

The story of the play follows Mark Twain's original to a surprising extent. And the characters look and act in a way that seems to measure up to the picture drawn in the mind by reading the book. Jack and Mitzzi are better than ever in this picture. All other characters are almost equally good. A comedy, a sportlight and sound news complete the Palace bill.

BUCK JONES IN 'THE LONE RIDER'

Buck Jones shares honors with his horse Silver, in "The Lone Rider," a story of bandit days of 1890, the current picture at the Ohio theater. The news reel, a comedy and Burt Belburne, comedian complete the bill.

Jones as Jim Lanning quits Ed Farrell, outlaw gang and decides to go in business for himself. He leads Farrell to a hold up of the stage coach but a girl passenger in the coach believes him to be her rescuer from the outlaws. Things take a funny turn when the folks of Gold City decide Jim should head the vigilance committee after he has driven Mary and the coach into town.

Things look bad for Jim when Farrell and his gang force Jim to leave town while they rob the bank but with the help of Silver he saves the gold and of course wins the girl.

Will Blames The British for Many of Our Bad Points Such as Fortnights, Week-End and Busses on Streets

Prohibition Problem
Be Left to Drinkers, Rogers Thinks.

BY WILL ROGERS

What's the matter with you? You know another of those things from English. We used to have any more what Fortnight than an Einstein. But now we can just take apart and split it up into three Fortnights just as always been used to it. That's another thing that's been taken off from our British. "Week End" we used to refer to some discrepancy of the human mind instead of naming the day just referred to it as "Week End," maby misspelling. But now we can't wait for Friday or Saturday so we can boast what we did to do over the week end. We only stole the word from the British but the idea. American the old days stayed over Saturday and Sunday, the same stayed on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, they stayed at home. We didn't start prowling because it was the last of the week. You used to love your home. You used to spend time in it. You used to travel about meant putting up with inconveniences, meeting a lot of people, sleeping in strange beds and you just didn't like to go. But now sentencing a man to stay at home over a few "Week Ends" is like sentencing him to Sing Sing. He must go away. His work has been so confining.

Then We Took to Busses

And you know come to think of it we've stolen a many a thing from the British. We used to make fun of them because they had Busses on their streets instead of Street Cars. Well here we are 25 years later and we're still making fun of them for having that very custom. A bus is getting to be a thing of the past, and all are looking for the Busses to ride on, and the same Double deck ones that have over were over there running

The same buses that Cromwell and Shakespeare rode on.

when Cromwell and Shakespeare were about. Now we are getting around to their Five and six o'clock tea. Course its not Tea here, but its the same Alabi that is used. You know we take credit for being a lot faster than we are. We cop a lot of things and then the first thing you know we are claiming them as our own.

You know no Nation has a monopoly on good things, each one has something that the others could well afford to adopt. But that wasn't what I started in to gab about at all, it all come about through writing unconsciously the word "Fortnight." I wanted to run over with you what has transpired in the newspapers.

All I know is just what I read in the papers, and there has been a lot of Property talk passed under the bridge since I last communed with you. Mr. Hoover's Commission that he appointed to find out if anyone was drinking, why they first upset the Country with a kind of a temporary announcement that they thought a modification would be about the right thing, then the next week they come out and said No they wouldn't recommend a modification, that they would recommend a continuation of present drinking. They have been almost two years sampling stuff to really find out what the people are drinking. Well the people were drinking so many different kinds of things that it took the Commission that long to get around. They are going to turn in a "Joint" report. That comes from their late association. Then each one is going to be allowed to tell his own story in his own way, that will be known as a Minority report. What they said in the main report they can deny in the single report, its kinder like Double Entry Bookkeeping. The red ink is to deny what the black does. We have kinder forgot who was on this Committee outside of Mr. Wickersham, and that's one reason for wanting to turn in separate single reports, it will kinder get the other members before the public.

Some Mess At That
Course Mr. Hoover cant do only what he is sworn in to do. People look to him to settle the whole thing, why he has been sworn to obey and enforce the laws to the best of his ability and that's what he has done. I bet personally he wished that the whole mess was all so solved that he would never hear of em again. You know it aint right to tangle a President up in a social fight among ourselves. He shouldnt be asked to settle Prohibition any more than he should the short dress problem. That's up to the wearers, and this other is up to the Drinkers. He has got too many important things to do to be messing his time away with that. But we will await their report, for it will be interesting to know just what people are drinking, and if Mr. Wickersham settles it, he will perhaps occupy the same position in this Country that Mussolini does in Italy.

TREND DOWNWARD

Marion Market Prices Show Little Change During Week.

Thanksgiving trading had little effect on the retail market activity here this week. A few slight flurries were noticed Wednesday when cranberries and grapes gained a cent on retail quotations.

However, the general market trend was downward. Florida oranges dropped to a price range of 20 to 45 cents a dozen. Butter prices lost two cents during the week to stand at a range of 38 to 42 cents a pound.

Paper shell pecans were new this week at 60 cents a pound. A small size grapefruit was introduced on the market this week to sell at 50 cents a dozen.

No Peace To The Wicked

A SERMON BY
BY REV. S. E. PORTER
Pastor, Emmanuel Baptist Church.

Behold! the foolishness of the wicked; the blindness of their eyes, the deafness of their ears. For there is no fear of God before their eyes, and they do not hear. The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom.

THEY do not seek oranges in a potato patch, nor bananas from cucumber vines; they do not seek peace in the pathway of wickedness. You know if you sow potatoes you will reap potatoes, don't you? Then why do you sow wickedness and expect peace?

Now take heed, O ye wicked. Open your eyes and behold your folly; your ears, and hear the word of Almighty God. For His eyes are on your foolishness. Yes, he seeth your corruption. Therefore in times past, and down through the ages, even unto this wicked and adulterous generation, comes the word, "There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked." Isa. 57:21.

Man, the Almighty God has made a plan by which his peace rules in the hearts of men. But your sins have separated you from God. Thus the peace of God is removed far from you. Hear His word? "There is no peace, saith the Lord, to the wicked." Isa. 48:22. Oh foolish man; are you wiser than God? Do you hear? He says, there is no peace, to the wicked. Man has rejected the God given peace in Christ Jesus our Saviour, and has gone about to establish his own righteousness and peace.

Why are ye so blind? Is not that which is born of the flesh, flesh? Is man anything other than flesh outside of Christ? Then that which is brought forth of man outside of Christ, is of the flesh. "Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: (I name but a few) hatred, variance, emulation, wrath, strife, envyings, etc." 2 Gal. 5:20-21. Will these bring forth peace? No, but we see what they bring forth by looking at the world today.

The wicked seek peace and satisfaction, in the pleasures of the world, the flesh, and the devil. Oh, where are Zion's Watchmen? Hath not God said? "Warn them of their evil ways." Ah, I recall a year ago an imp entered within the walls of God's professing people. Many of the ministers were urged to unite in an effort to throw him out, and guard the door, but some were afraid to resist him, and called the effort unnecessary. But when the devil came in the form of a marauder, their weak knees were strengthened and they cry out in protest, "Throw him out, he is eating up my dancing church members."

Dear sinner friend, give ear, hear the word of the Lord. Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return to God by the way of the cross and the blood of Jesus Christ will cleanse him from all sin. Then the peace of God shall be your portion, for He will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on him because he trusteth in Him, but there is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

MARATHON RULING
GIVEN BY BETTMAN

Attorney General Gives Opinion on Dance Here for Donithen.

The status of marathon dance with respect to the statute governing the regulation of public dances is a question of fact to be determined in each case, Attorney General Gilbert Bettman held today in an opinion to Prosecutor Alfred Donithen.

The effort of Prosecutor Donithen to learn whether the marathon dance is subject to the provisions of the general code governing dances was made after several individuals and organizations had gone on record opposing the continued operation of the national dance marathon at Crystal Lake park.

Possibility of action to have the dance halted was thought to have been removed today when officials of the contest said the dance was nearing a close. The four couples and two solo dancers remaining in the contest will begin the "grind" at 6 p. m. tonight, with rest periods and other privileges taken away.

The winners, who will receive $1,000, will probably be determined within the next 30 hours, officials of the contest say.

MANY REQUEST
HEALTH SEALS

Those Missed by Letters May Obtain Stickers from League.

Persons who wish to purchase Christmas health seals from the Marion County Anti-Tubercular League may obtain them by writing Dr. N. Siffritt, city-county health commissioner and secretary of the league, he said today following receipt of a request from one resident for 100 of the seals.

"Please send me 100 Christmas seals, which I wish to purchase because I think the campaign is a worthy endeavor," the request read.

Mail Letters

More than 3,500 letters containing seals were sent Wednesday to Marion city and county residents, but many others to whom no seals were sent may wish to purchase them, Dr. Siffritt said. They can do so by addressing their requests to the Marion County Anti-Tuberculosis league.

Indorsement of the Christmas seal campaign here was made by Dr. Charles A. Neal, state director of health, in a letter received by Dr. Siffritt today. Dr. Siffritt also announced receipt of an indorsement of the Marion Central Labor Union.

CHECKS COME IN

"Conditions brought about by the recent drought and by unemployment necessitate concerted efforts on the part of groups interested in the Christmas seal drive," Dr. Neal wrote. "These conditions tend to lower vitality and make the system less likely to resist the ravages of tuberculosis."

More than 100 letters, most of them containing checks or currency, were received by the league today from persons to whom seals were sent. One woman, to whom 500 of the seals had been sent, not only enclosed a $5 check as her contribution but also returned the seals to be resold.

Einstein Loses Half Hour in At-

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—Professor Albert Einstein, who sets a relative value on things, allotted just one half hour of his time this morning to see his daughter, Margot, married at the municipal marriage bureau.

Herr Einstein calculated with mathematical precision that he could spare just 30 minutes to give the bride away to Dr. Dimitri Marjanoff, young Russian writer. He failed to carry out his program and because a witness was late he lost a half hour in getting back to his own quarters to work.

The young couple will have the use of the Einstein apartment while the professor and his wife are away on their American trip.

motion was overruled.

The last of the witnesses called by the state before resting its case in chief was Deputy Mitchell who guaranteed Willis as he lay in Antonio hospital with a bullet wound in his leg. Mitchell, in answer to questions, said that Willis, upon learning of the death of Ansel, admitted to him that he had shot Ansel and exonerated Johnson of any blame saying he was innocent and that he (Willis) forced him.

On cross-examination Deputy Mitchell said there were no other witnesses present at the time of the confession and that he did not tell of the alleged confession until after the grand jury had met because the prosecutor had not asked him. He also testified, under cross-examination, that he did not tell Willis he was talking to an officer and warn him that whatever he said might be used against him.

The deputy was also asked if he knew whether or not a quarter grain of morphine that had been given Willis earlier by a surgeon had any influence on Willis and he said he did not.

FIRES VICE SQUAD

Youngstown Mayor Blames Public for Failure of Law Enforcement.

By The Associated Press

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 28.— Mayor Joseph L. Heffernan is convinced that law enforcement is hopeless because the public itself has no respect for laws.

Distributing the entire vice squad of seven members effective tomorrow, Mayor Heffernan declared it is a hopeless task to try to find men in the community "who will satisfactorily perform police work."

Chief of Police Paul E. Lyden took up the challenge and said he would serve personally as head of the new vice squad for at least 30 days.

The mayor's dismissal of the vice squad came after two raids by deputy sheriffs who said city officials were unable to cope with the liquor situation.

71ST CONGRESS SET FOR FINAL SESSION

sessions of congress, the Wagner unemployment bill pending in the house, and the anti-lynching bill to prevent the use of restraining orders in labor disputes.

Worries for Senate

In the senate a possible contest over the World court, and nearly a score of important presidential nominations including that of William N. Doak of Virginia, as secretary of labor, undoubtedly will add to the burdens of the leaders.

Left over from the last session the Wickersham bills to relieve court congestion by removing trials and the bills to create a unified border patrol and to place motor buses under regulation are prominent on the senate calendar.

While Republican leaders plan to expedite action on the annual supply bills for operation of the government, they are anxious for early approval of several unemployment and drought relief measures.

assertion of William Green, president of the federation, that the post should be filled from within his organization, and on the chief executive "the duty to maintain the principle of open and equal opportunity and freedom in appointments to public office."

Green Disappointed

Green immediately expressed disappointment on behalf of the Federation officers. His statement refrained, however, from saying whether opposition would be carried to the length of seeking a senate refusal of confirmation.

Doak is legislative representative of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, a union not affiliated with the Federation. He is the first labor secretary chosen outside the Federation and also is the first native American named for the post. He was considered by many Mr. Hoover's choice for the post two years ago, but Federation opposition was strong.

There has been no indication in the senate so far that objection will be raised to the appointment.

Indorsed by Some Unions

The President said Doak bore the indorsement of several large labor unions, a number belonging to the Federation, and pointed out that Green himself had expressed high personal regard for the man.

Just
Things

—BY EDNA S. DUTTON—

Left Overs

HAVING left the old gathering wasn't nearly so much fun as tossing them away. And by the way, didn't they look pretty good in spite of the wear? The good old skates looked better than any spring and about the only pair for them seemed to be the rubber pile. Of course the zipper won't zip because they are warped and rusty or miss a cog somewhere, but the man who invented that strap fastener sure knew his buttons.

Apples

There old adage about the apple to make the doctors be awake, nights, with the venders and their rosy red wares paring in an appearance in the offices downtown. There's something so tempting looking about an apple and this coupled with the second thought of the health boost, is bound to loosen one's purse strings. Then, too, when an office full of people join in the crunching chorus it's something new and decidedly different, and at least a change from the gum chewing marathon.

Resolutions

DIG out the old New Year's resolutions book and see in black and white, just what your own private vow was in regard to doing the Christmas shopping early. Didn't you, just as sure as cats have whiskers, say it would never happen again? On Thanksgiving day I learned by word of mouth of a woman who had her gifts all purchased and tied up. That's hard to swallow and I for one fail to see where she would get any kick out of it but if it suits her it should us. There's some real enjoyment in buying when the others are looking too, but there's also a little disappointment if the other fellow happens to see your gift first. Well, it's only 25 more days.

She will also speak on a hymn contest which is being held this year for Junior music clubs.

The program to be given is as follows: Helen Cross, piano solo, "Fantasia in D Minor," Mozart; Kathryn Schneider, piano solo, "Silent Night," Kohlman; Jane Starner, piano solo, "Gesu Bambino," Prepro A. Yon; Roma Bader, reading, "Having A Manicure"; Betty Annen, selected vocal solo; accompanied at the piano by Helen Cross; Marilyn Mesek, selected piano solo; Lillian Thomas and Virginia Grover, piano solo, "Arlecchino," Nevin.

The origin of several of the best-known hymns will be told in a short talk by Miss Mary Heininger.
